New York, Kingston—The Kingston Model Railroad Club was organized in September 1937. This is our 80th year. We claim to be the oldest club to still be in its original quarters in the US. The Hudson Valley Lines layout is located in a former New York Central maintenance building not far from where the Kingston passenger station used to be. It has been expanded over the years to its current 100 feet by 34 feet. Lower level houses work stations, paint booth, machine tools (drill press, lathe, milling machine), meeting room and library/museum. The layout is O Scale, formerly outside third rail converted to two rail years ago, including traction (overhead feed) and On3. Scenery is complete, although changes are made from time to time. The Club is open Thur evenings 7-9 (usually later) with a business meeting on the 2nd Thursday each month. Full members must be 16. There is a probationary period. Interested parties should stop by for a visit and more info. Call 845.334.8233 (Thursdays 7-9, or leave a message). To find us, Google Kingston Model Railroad Club and click on Maps, or Enter midpoint Susan Street, Kingston, NY on GPS. [10-17]

Maine, Portland—The "470" Railroad Club, P.O. Box 641, Portland, ME 04104. The "470" Railroad Club was created in 1954 to commemorate the last run of a steam locomotive, No. 470, in passenger service on Maine Central Railroad. We meet monthly for presentations and videos about railroad history. Club sponsors a Crawford Notch Trip every fall on Conway Scenic Railroad. We own four engines and three freight cars on display there. Members help operate and maintain this equipment. At Cumberland Fair, we operate the Yarmouth Junction Railroad Section House, including a real handcar ride, railroad history, Operation Lifesaver, and a small O-Scale layout. The members enjoy a monthly newsletter of railroad news around the world. Membership $25 per year or $30 to have the newsletter sent First Class. Ohio, Hamilton—The Cincinnati Northern Model RR Club welcomes new members interested in building and operating a prototype-based, mid-western-themed HO model railroad. The Cincinnati Northern was a branch of the New York Central that ran between Franklin, Ohio, and Jackson, Michigan. Our two-level, 25x27 foot HO-scale layout models the line from Franklin to Van Wert, Ohio, in the early 1950s. Seven towns are represented with depots and industries. Club also operates a prize-winning sectional layout that was featured in the 2012 issue of Model Railroad Planning and is exhibited annually at several venues in the greater Cincinnati area. Meet Tue evenings Ross School District Admin. Bldg, 3371 Hamilton-Cleves Rd. Op sessions held monthly, visitors welcome. Contact: George Roos, 513-205-1180 or email crnw@zoomtown.com.
